Dear Charles Carlson,

Welcome to IXL! Your school has created an IXL account for you, giving you access to a personalized learning platform that is proven to help students achieve more. IXL is easy to use and supports your daily instruction, with a comprehensive curriculum aligned to standards and textbooks, real-time assessment and progress-tracking tools, and individualized guidance for every student.

Let's get learning!
Your username is ccarlson375. To activate your account, click the following link or copy and paste it into your browser.

Getting your students started is simple. Just select Roster from the "My IXL" menu and confirm your student list. From there, you can also download student sign-in cards, and your class can start using IXL immediately! Be sure to have students sign in every time they use IXL so they can receive personalized content and so you can track their progress.

For ideas on how to use IXL, explore our Teacher Resources, where you can find simple implementation guides, quick video walkthroughs, fun printables, and more!
